Merit System

The Regent Merit System is authorized by Iowa Code §8A.412. Rules governing classification, compensation, promotion, demotion, transfer, grievances, leave, and discipline are outlined in the Iowa Administrative Code, 681, Chapter 3. Approximately 95% of employees in the Merit System are in American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME) bargaining units and are covered by the terms of its collective bargaining agreement.

Classification Activity

The Regent Merit System Classification Plan consists of 328 job classifications. The classification plan is flexible and may be revised as the need arises.

The classification plan is administered and maintained by classification analysts at each institution Board Office staff. Employee and department requests for individual position reclassifications are reviewed on each campus and forwarded with recommendations to the Board Office for disposition.

The vast majority of classifications are in AFSCME bargaining units. The collective bargaining agreement with AFSCME gives the union time to comment on the establishment of new classes and the deletion of existing classes.

Changes of title and pay grades are negotiated with the union. Pay grade changes and pay grade determinations for new classifications are made through application of a job evaluation instrument. This instrument allows each class to be evaluated based upon skill, effort, responsibility, and working conditions for the classification in accordance with the state's comparable worth law.

Appeals

Three appeal or grievance procedures may be utilized by Regent Merit System employees.

One applies to employees who want to appeal the Merit System Director's decision regarding classifications of their positions. In accordance with merit rules, those appeals are heard by a committee consisting of a Resident Director or representative from another Regent institution, a peer employee, and an outside chairperson who is knowledgeable in matters of job classification.

A second appeal process is available to employees who allege violation of merit or institutional rules governing terms and conditions of employment. A neutral arbitrator selected from lists provided by the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service hears those appeals at the final step.

A third procedure is applicable to employees who allege violation of the collective bargaining agreement between the State and AFSCME and are resolved in accordance with the negotiated grievance process.

See the following page for data on classification activity and appeals.

Fringe Benefits

The three universities maintain separate insurance programs within a framework of general comparability under the authority of the Board of Regents.

In accordance with Board of Regents Policy Manual §2.1(2)(B), the Executive Director reviews all proposed changes in benefit programs to determine if Board approval is required.

Employees participate in health, dental, life, long-term disability, and accidental death and dismemberment insurance programs. Employees of the special schools participate in benefit programs at Iowa State University.

Retirement

Permanent employees of the Board Office and the Regent institutions (except students, House Staff, fellows and adjunct faculty) have the option to select either the Iowa Public Employees' Retirement System (IPERS), Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association (TIAA), or an approved substitute in accordance with Board Policy. Participation in a retirement program is required. The Board approved allowing the employees of the special schools to select between TIAA and IPERS effective January 1996.

Contribution Rate – TIAA and approved substitutes

- ▶ Ten percent on the first $4,800 of salary for employees with less than five years of service and 15% on all additional salary up to applicable IRS limitations. The employer pays 2/3 of the cost and the employee 1/3.
- ▶ The contribution for employees with more than five years of service is 15% up to applicable IRS limitations. The employer pays 2/3 of the cost and the employee pays 1/3.
- ▶ The employer pays 10% of salary while the employee pays 5% with the exception noted above.

Benefits from the TIAA program include a fixed annuity, which is adjusted periodically. These can be received as a lifetime annuity, systematic payment, cash withdrawal, or a combination of these options. Vesting of employee and employer contributions in TIAA and approved substitutes is immediate at SUI, UNI, ISD and IBSSS. Effective July 1, 2009, ISU implemented a three-year cliff vesting of employer contributions.

A TIAA waiver of premium, which continues contributions during periods of disability is provided. Similar protection is provided to federal employees covered by the federal retirement program at ISU.

Contribution Rate – IPERS

The employer pays 8.93% of salary while the employee pays 5.95%.

Contribution Rate – Federal Programs at ISU

Employees select one of four federal retirement programs (FERS/CSRS/Offset/TSP). Each program contributes varying percentages based on employee contributions; no new enrollments in these programs.

Iowa State University

This coverage is provided for all employees with a one-half time or greater appointment for nine months following one year of continuous employment. Coverage can be elected during the first year of employment but is subject to medical approval. If approved, coverage is paid by the employee until completing one year of continuous employment. ISU Plan participants (faculty, P&S, supervisory merit staff) have a choice of either a 75/60% or 50% LTD plan. The maximum monthly benefit for the 75/60% plan is $10,000.

A 5% maximum cost-of-living escalator tied to the Social Security cost-of-living escalator is provided. There is also a coordination provision with FICA and workers' compensation.

Benefits accrue after a 90 work day waiting period and cease on June 30 following attainment of age 65; or, if disability begins on or after age 61, payments continue for five years or attainment of age 70, whichever is earlier. If disability begins on or after age 69, benefits continue for 12 months. The University pays the entire cost for this coverage (except as noted above).

University of Northern Iowa

If benefits begin on or after age 69, benefits continue for 12 months. The disability benefit is 66 2/3% of budgeted salary up to a maximum monthly benefit of $6,667.

Retirements

In addition to regular retirement through either IPERS or TIAA, with approval of the institution, Regent employees may enter the phased retirement program.

The Board first approved the phased retirement program in 1982. The last program expired on June 30, 2017. Details may be found in Regent Policy Manual §2.1(2)(H)(i) – Phased and Early Retirement. To date 1,501 faculty and staff have participated in the program. There have been no participants from ISD or IBSSS.

“Incentive” is the difference between the total compensation paid (salary and university fringe benefit contributions) under the Phased Retirement Program and the total compensation that would have been paid if the individual had reduced to the specified percentage of effort without the special provisions of the program.

“Released” is the difference between the total compensation received under the policy and the total compensation that would have been received if the individual had remained full time.

The funds released through operation of the phased retirement program are used in a variety of ways at the universities. For the most part, the funds are utilized for replacement personnel or reallocation within the retirees’ employing units to fund other areas of need.

Salaries

In June 2017, the Board approved the following salary policies for the institutions for FY 2018:

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENTS

American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees (AFSCME - all institutions):

The statewide collective bargaining agreement with AFSCME provides for a one percent (1.0%) increase on July 1, 2017. The Board of Regents employs approximately six thousand five hundred (6,500) AFSCME covered staff in blue collar, security, technical and clerical units at its institutions.

SERVICE EMPLOYEES INTERNATIONAL UNION (SEIU – tertiary care employees at UIHC):

The parties failed to reach an agreement, so beginning on July 1, 2017, there will not be a collective bargaining in place between the parties. The University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics will provide an increase of two percent (2.00%) on July 1, 2017 (there are no step increases). There are approximately three thousand four hundred (3,400) SEIU covered staff.

COGS (University of Iowa graduate assistants):

A collective bargaining agreement for a two-year contract beginning July 1, 2017, with the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, Local 896/COGS provides a one and one-tenth percent (1.1%) increase in the average graduate assistant stipend on July 1, 2017 (there are no steps). There are approximately two thousand two hundred fifty (2,250) COGS covered staff.

UNI – UNITED FACULTY (faculty at the University of Northern Iowa):

A voluntary agreement for a two-year contract beginning July 1, 2017, was reached with the organized faculty (UNI-United Faculty). The agreement provides for a wage increase of one and one-tenth percent (1.1%) on July 1, 2017 (there are no step increases). There are approximately seven hundred (700) UNI-United Faculty covered staff.

REGENT MERIT SYSTEM SALARY POLICY

Regent Merit System Supervisory and Confidential Staff Wage Increase: As customary, the wage increase proposed for the non-represented supervisory and confidential staff in the Regent Merit System is the same as that negotiated with AFSCME for employees in statewide bargaining units and results in the attached pay matrix (See Attachment A). The two-year AFSCME agreement beginning July 1, 2017, provides for a one percent (1.0%) increase on July 1, 2017.

Regent Merit System Employee Merit/Step Increase: Due to amendments made to Iowa Code Chapter 20 during the 2017 legislative session, merit/step increases will be set in salary policy for both represented and non-represented merit employees. For FY 2018 no merit/step increases will be given.

University of Iowa

The University's new budgeting process provides a framework for accelerating advancement in strategically targeted areas while maintaining and contributing to the high quality in core missions and central programs. For FY 2017, $20.1 million of incremental revenue was distributed to collegiate and non-collegiate units for budget development. Units set priorities and created spending plans guided by four agreed upon principles (Student Success, Quality Indicators, UI Values, and UI Future.)

The salary policy for faculty and non-bargaining professional and scientific (P&S) staff was an outcome of this process. The salary policy provided collegiate and other major units latitude in establishing unit-specific salary policies, regardless of the source of funds. It also enabled units to reward high-achieving faculty and staff contributing significantly and in a measurable way to the success of the University. Collegiate units were encouraged to implement plans that move faculty salaries to at least 95% of the peer median over a three-year period. Salary increments for faculty and non-bargaining P&S staff will be distributed differentially to individual staff based upon performance and market competitiveness demands.

Individual salary increases that exceed 6.0% must be reviewed and approved by the Office of Provost (faculty) or University Human Resources (P&S staff). The University will allow major units to provide promotion increases, counter offers and similar critical adjustments to retain highly valued faculty and staff but must be within their budget limitations.

The university will continue to utilize the exceptional performance pay policy approved by the Board in 2006 for non-bargaining P&S staff. The use of the exceptional performance policy will be both selective and reflective of the university's economic circumstances. Achievements recognized by the awards include activities such as completion of a major project, sustained exceptional performance, outstanding productivity and revenue generation. Payments under the exceptional performance policy are entirely non-recurring compensation.

P&S salary matrices for FY 2017 reflect the most recent calibration of market ranges and median zones using salary survey data. Based on this year's analysis of competitive market data, the proposed ranges were increased 0.09% to 1.6% depending on relative market data for each structure and level.

Iowa State University

As approved by the Executive Director, faculty, post docs, P&S staff, and contract employees with satisfactory performance received a minimum performance-based salary increase of 1% on July 1, 2016. Meritorious based performance adjustments up to 5%, in addition to the 1.0% for satisfactory performance, could be provided for those whose performance was better than satisfactory. Total salary adjustments of more than 5% required a request form and authorization from the respective Senior Vice President or President. Total salary adjustment is defined as an increase in base pay effective July 1, 2016 attributed to a performance-based, market/equity, or retention salary adjustment.

Less than satisfactory performing employees did not receive a salary increase on July 1, 2016. In these cases, the supervisor filed a performance improvement plan for P&S staff and contract employees or an action plan for faculty and post docs. These plans included a required performance review in December 2016. Should the employee improve sufficiently as a result of the PIP or action plan (i.e. his/her overall performance is satisfactory), the employee would be eligible for a performance-based increase effective January 1, 2017.

The P&S staff pay matrix increased by 1.75% for FY 2017.

University of Northern Iowa

UNI implemented the terms of a voluntary agreement for a two-year contract beginning July 1, 2017, that was reached with the organized faculty (UNI-United Faculty). The agreement provided for a wage increase of 1.1% on July 1, 2017.

As approved by the Executive Director, the FY 2018 salary increase for P&S staff was an amount equal to 1.5% of combined annual salaries. The funds were distributed as a 1.5% increase on July 1, 2017, with 1% for employees with satisfactory performance and the remaining .5% based on performance and equity.

Iowa School for the Deaf and Iowa Braille and Sight Saving School

The faculty salary and the non-bargaining P&S staff salary matrices were approved by the Executive Director. ISD and IBSSS share a single P&S salary matrix. The overall average salary increase for all faculty and non-bargaining P&S staff was approximately 1.0% and salary increases for institutional officials was 1.0%.

SERVICE EMPLOYEES INTERNATIONAL UNION (SEIU – tertiary care employees at UIHC)

A voluntary agreement on wages for a two-year contract beginning July 1, 2015, was reached with SEIU. The agreement provided for an across-the-board increase on July 1, 2016, of 2.75%.

UE Local 896/COGS (University of Iowa graduate assistants)

A voluntary agreement for a two-year contract beginning July 1, 2015, was reached with the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, Local 896/COGS. The agreement provided for continuation of the minimum tuition scholarship in an amount equal to 100% of the cost of resident graduate tuition for the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. The agreement also provided for contribution of 25% of mandatory fees and a 3% increase in the minimum graduate assistant stipend on July 1, 2016.

UNI – UNITED FACULTY (faculty at the University of Northern Iowa)

A voluntary agreement for a two-year contract beginning July 1, 2017, was reached with the organized faculty (UNI-United Faculty). The agreement provides for a wage increase of one and one-tenth percent (1.1%) on July 1, 2017 (there are no step increases). There are approximately seven hundred (700) UNI-United Faculty covered staff.

Faculty Salary Comparisons

Peer Institutions (See pages 31 –39x for exhibits)

Exhibit 1

For many years, the universities have used Board-designated peer groups to make comparisons in several areas such as tuition and fees, residence system rates, and salaries. Each group includes 10 peer institutions which were deemed by the Board to be comparable. These institutions are public universities in Minnesota, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Arizona, California, Michigan, North Carolina, Texas, and Wisconsin.

Exhibits 2 and 3

In order to get a broader comparison for faculty salaries, the ISU and SUI groups were expanded to include 56 AAU institutions in the AAU Data Exchange (AAUDE). This group includes the original designated institutions with the exception of one – North Carolina State University which was designated as an ISU peer institution.

Exhibit 4

The University of Northern Iowa's list includes institutions in the Education Trust. The salaries for these institutions are those that are published by the AAUP in its annual faculty salary survey. The Education Trust was established in 1990 by the American Association of Higher Education as a special project to encourage colleges and universities to support K-12 reform efforts. Since then, the Education Trust has grown into an independent nonprofit organization. Its mission is to make schools and colleges work for all the young people they serve.

Exhibit 9

This exhibit provides salary comparison information for the University of Iowa's Carver College of Medicine. This information is provided by the University from survey data collected by the Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC).

"Founded in 1876 and based in Washington, D.C., the Association of American Medical Colleges is a not-for-profit association dedicated to transforming health care through innovative medical education, cutting-edge patient care, and groundbreaking medical research. Its members comprise all 145 accredited U.S. and 17 accredited Canadian medical schools; nearly 400 major teaching hospitals and health systems, including 51 Department of Veterans Affairs' medical centers; and more than 80 academic societies. Through these institutions and organizations, the AAMC serves the leaders of America's medical schools and teaching hospitals and their 148,000 faculty members, 83,000 medical students, and 115,000 resident physicians."

Employee Award Programs

In May 2005, the Board approved a pilot program to recognize exceptional performance by non-organized professional and scientific staff at the University of Iowa. The program was approved for a one-year period. The program allowed for awards for exceptional performance (up to 10% of salary) and SPOT awards ($75 or less).

Rather than ask the Board to consider an extension of the pilot award program at the University of Iowa, Regent Policy Manual §2.1(2)(A)(v) was revised to authorize such programs at the other institutions. The revision allows each institution to develop its own procedures for recognizing exceptional performance in non-organized faculty and professional and scientific staff.

The University of Iowa program to recognize exceptional performance has been in place for several years. Iowa State University implemented an Extra-Meritorious Performance Pay program in FY 2011.

See examples of Exceptional Performance Awards at SUI and ISU below and on the following pages. No Exceptional Performance Awards were issued at UNI, ISD, or IBSSS for FY 2017.

University of Iowa

Flexible pay is awarded for extra-meritorious performance demonstrated by project completion, sustained above average performance, revenue generation, excellent customer service, or similar achievements.

Two types of performance awards available to non-organized Professional & Scientific (P&S) staff are: (1) Exceptional Performance Awards, and (2) SPOT Performance Awards.

In order to be eligible for the an Exceptional Performance Award, an employee must be employed at the University of Iowa in a regular position for at least six months, have a current Commendable or Distinguished performance evaluation on file, and have received at least the average July 1 salary increase for their college/division.

Flexible pay may be awarded any time during the year in the form of a lump sum payment that is not added to base salary. For exceptional performance, employees can receive up to 10% of their salary in flexible pay upon administrative approval. No more than 10% of the non-organized P&S employees are eligible to receive Exceptional Performance Awards. Spot Awards of $75.00 (net) or less allow departments to immediately recognize outstanding performance. Employees are eligible to receive up to four Spot Awards per year. Departments are responsible for funding all flexible pay awards.

The University of Iowa Flexible Pay Program has provided colleges and departments with a mechanism for rewarding exceptional performance outside of July 1st that does not increase base salaries on a continuing basis. SUI is able to provide timely monetary lump sum payments to employees for completing major projects on time, recommending different and more efficient ways to perform certain activities, revenue generation, and providing excellent customer service. Five-year history of the awards program is shown on the following page.

Examples of SUI Exceptional Performance Awards

1. An employee was instrumental in the RFP process and led the implementation of a new merchant credit card processor (US Bank/Elavon). The individual dedicated additional time and effort to ensure the successful completion of this project. The initial phase involved extensive planning and collaboration with peers which enabled a straightforward RFP document that addressed the issues most relevant to University of Iowa. The new contract benefits 140 department locations across campus and facilitates the collection of $80 million in annual revenue.

It was important to keep the implementation on track to ensure no interruption in service to mission-critical departments. The implementation process included complex interactions with Elavon as well as frequent communication with departments to identify and troubleshoot onboarding problems. Prioritization of campus locations was key to allow departments time to coordinate with their external software vendors for conversion details.

Along with the processing conversion, it was necessary to update the eDeposit system to enable the automatic posting of receipts from Elavon. In addition, a new merchant credit card application was developed within eDeposits which documents department approvals, provides the key data elements needed by Elavon, and captures general ledger elements to enable posting of receipts. Jonathan successfully completed this phase of the implementation which required analysis of bank data, understanding of systems and the assistance of Business Services IT for programming and testing updates.

The overall implementation and conversion process required diligent planning and understanding of systems and processes in order to prioritize and successfully complete the project. The employee's strong leadership and project management skills, ensured deadlines were met throughout the transition period and resulted in a timely and accurate conversion.

2. The University of Iowa and Northern Iowa signed a Memorandum of Understanding in May 2013 approving the initiative to rewrite ProTrav for the University of Northern Iowa. ProTrav is a home grown electronic application developed by SUI used for receiving, reconciling, auditing and reporting procurement card and travel related expenses. This initiative was one of the first strategic collaborations across State institutions to share technological financial solutions for common business processes.

The planning stage to determine scope, feature/functional gaps, and software requirements was approximately 16 months. Code development began in Fall 2014. A delivered product was rolled out to SUI in November, 2015 and ProTrav@UNI was released at Northern Iowa in March 2016.

The high-level objectives of the project are as follows:

Implement an electronic procurement card and travel expense management system for UNI with very limited customization to improve the current manual procurement card and travel expense business processes at UNI while adopting best practices inherent within the system when possible. Gain a deeper understanding of UNI business practices and technical systems and built foundation for further collaboration.

The effort by this team is unprecedented and extensive. Creating the first delivery of a full end to end system by one institution to another. The project actually began to be developed by a collaborative effort a few years ago. Application developers had to understand both University systems and build interfaces with other UNI systems, mask menus and pages with UNI logo.

This project and its delivery, were history in the making. The pressure to be successful cannot be underestimate. These individuals deserve recognition for their dedication and incredible efforts.

3. A team of employees were instrumental in developing a new Collegiate Economic Analysis (CEA) budget model. Their work directly supported the Provost Office and University Budget Office help define and design the new responsibility centered management (RCM) based budgeting model. The new budget model incentivizes revenue growth and cost containment, while also providing funding for strategic initiatives. It also provides flexibility and transparency in budgeting and decision making process.

To support the new budget process, the team had to aggregate appropriate academic tuition and fee assessment data with financial aid award data, perform the various weighted attributions, resident/non-resident blending algorithms and finally provide a comparative visualization so the Collegiate Budget Officers and Deans could determine which model was most appropriate for FY18. The team was involved in weekly campus-wide functional meetings plus almost daily technical meetings. The data aggregations, simulations and visualizations were a very iterative process requiring several refinements to derive the final CEA model with suitable accuracy.

To verify the model, various simulations were performed using previous, current, and future year's enrollment data with a variety of fee structures and allocation models. The simulations were very complex requiring technical knowledge from Admissions, Financial Aid, Billing and database and business intelligence expertise.

In addition to conducting their regular technical workload of supporting MAUI applications, enterprise databases and business intelligence solutions, they participated in the design, analysis and implementation of the new Collegiate Economic Analysis. The data complexity, processing requirements and tight timelines required significant effort and expertise.

Examples of ISU Extra-Meritorious Performance Awards

1. Ann saved the university and student's money this year by ensuring that tuition for graduate assistants is assessed correctly. In December 2016, Ann caught a coding error that resulted in inaccurate tuition assessment for many graduate students. She dealt effectively with IT and demonstrated professionalism and persistence when initial reaction did not convince her that the problem would be resolved. Eventually, IT identifies the coding error that was leading to numerous incorrect tuition assessments for spring 2017. IT was only because of Ann that many graduate students were not either overbilled or under-billed during the past year. Ann continues to lead efforts with IT and the registrar's office to create reports that find student who are incorrect assessed due to C-base coding problems. Ann's efforts continues to prevent costly and embarrassing efforts. For example, Ann recently identified students who would have been incorrectly assessed summer tuition. Ann's diligence and thorough understanding of the various factors that determine tuition of graduate students are highly valuable. Although Ann is consistently an outstanding employee, the on-time request for extra compensation is justified due to Ann's extraordinary effectiveness in recent months.

2. In 2015 a collaborative initiative between CELT and ITS began to review the audience response system (clickers) used university wide. The tool/technology at the time was reaching an end of life state and a new product needed to be reviewed, piloted and implemented across campus.

Between August 2015 and April 2016 products were reviewed and a new tool TopHat, was selected. Due in large part of the reorganization of ITS (began May 2016), implementation of the new technology became the responsibility of Lesya Hassall, CELT Instructional Design Specialist.

Over the past 14 months Lesya has lead this effort. The initial migration and ongoing implementation has been successful because of the significant extraordinary efforts of Lesya. She has managed the internal and vendor communication which has been a significant undertaking as the vendor's business model has changed over the past 6 months as have some product features.

Lesya gained buy in from faculty and developed/implemented relevant training materials to on board them, Lesya took on the responsibilities associated with this project and completed them far beyond the fulfillment of her normal job duties and in addition to her ongoing job responsibilities supporting faculty across campus with course and instructional design needs.

Without her tremendous effort we would not have been able to transition 170 faculty users to the new system and impact 14,330 student users (spring 2017). TopHat is a critical part of many courses including high enrollment courses.

3. Most of ISU's websites are not accessible to people with disabilities. Ann (Program Coordinator I) served as the driving force for creating a new website template that provides accessibility for Iowa State University websites.

Working with the university web accessibility coordinator and the university theme committee, Ann conducted usability studies and led development of a reusable website template that achieves Section 508 and WCAG AA accessibility standards.

Ann's work, which is outside the scope of her regular position responsibilities, will save hundreds of hours of work and protect ISU from potential lawsuits by ensuring that new websites are accessibility-compliant from the start. The template will be used for the IT Leadership Committee project to provide self-service faculty websites, which will affect the entire campus.

4. Katie Blair provides support services to students and faculty in multiple interdepartmental graduate majors. She has consistently performed well since she joined the Graduate College 10 years ago.

During the past year, however, Katie's performance was particularly noteworthy. She was able to avert possible student attrition related to conflicts with peers and advisors. She worked on developing team meetings to promote cohesiveness and a sense of community, an idea that promises to work well going forward in part due to Katie's exceptionally pleasant demeanor and professionalism.

Katie also was exceptionally active this year in professional development opportunities that others in her job category typically do not pursue. As a result, the web sites of her programs are improving, and she is strengthening program governance documents.

These achievements are not required of her but contribute to our efforts to recruit, on-board, and retain students through timely degree completion.
